Forty-Nine Days

For 49 days we've been counting, numbering each day as we move forward. We begin the 2nd day of Passover right after the moment of Freedom, just as the Israelites are leaving Egypt and we begin to count.

In the Torah the people of Israel reach Sinai and 49 days after leaving Egypt they receive the Torah at Mount Sinai and nothing is the same.

Sinai is that place, that experience that changes everything. According to our Rabbis all of creation was leading to this moment. God created the world so he could give us the Torah, and from that moment onward we always gaze back at Sinai. Everything we do as Jews is with an eye on Mount Sinai. The Torah gives way to Mishna, the Mishna to the Talmud and the Talmud to Codes of Jewish Law. All originate at Mount Sinai. Our Jewish experience 2,000 years ago, 10 minutes ago, is colored by our experiences on Sinai. It was then and there that Judaism was defined.

After 49 days we reach the holiday of Shavuot. We celebrate the revelation on Mount Sinai, receiving the Torah and the legacy of Torah and learning that God has given us. How do we do that? By studying and celebrating studying. For that reason it has been the custom of our community to hold Hebrew School graduation on the evening of Shavuot. Nothing honors Torah as much as honoring those who have studied Torah. Our graduation begins at 8:15 pm as our Bogrim class will lead us in the Ma'ariv service.

After graduation, beginning at 9:30 pm we celebrate Torah by studying Torah. Classes will be offered by Judah Landa, Professor Yakov Weinstein, Jack Silverman and me. We begin studying at 9:30 pm and continue as long as we can. Please see the program below and I urge you to join us for a night of enlightenment and great debate.

Our celebration continues the next days. On Wednesday the first day of Shavuot, we read the Ten Commandments and on Thursday as the holiday concludes, we say Yizkor.

It's ironic that a holiday of such import is the shortest on our calendar. Many explanations have been offered but I think that the best understanding is that Shavuot is a holiday of great intensity and such intensity can only be sustained for a brief time. Join us for this holiday when we study Torah, celebrate Torah and reflect on the gift that God has given us that has helped changed our world and shaped our lives.

Elana and I wish all a very happy holiday and a very meaningful Shavuot.

CO-PRESIDENT'S REPORT

What an amazing year this has been for Eric and I as Co-Presidents of the East Brunswick Jewish Center. We are just about completing the first year of our two year term. Speaking for the two of us, there is nothing that could have prepared us for the events that happened during this year. However the rewards of our hard work and the help of our devoted and dedicated board members and volunteers have made it all worthwhile, Hopefully by now many of you have seen the result of our beautification project. Located in the hallway between the Sisterhood Store and the office corridor, the transformed hallway will feature a rotating art and photography display from EBJC and surrounding communities. As part of this new project we have available several honorarium opportunities including the entire hallway and separate displays of from one to four pieces of art to fit all budgets. Yasher Koach to all the members of the committee, which was chaired by Deena Oren with Judi Salant, and Dori Saypol, for doing such a fantastic job and for many hours of hard work. Thank you also to the Rollman, Oren, and Salant families for their generosity and to the Men's Club, Mitzvah Corps, and Sisterhood for their support of this project.

Eric and I are also very excited about a new partnership we are creating with Beit Shalom of Monroe, "Two Synagogues One Community". We will be offering dual membership for members that live in Monroe and we will be working together on many events and activities. We welcome Beit Shalom to our East Brunswick Family and looking forward to many years together.

More good news, we are happy to announce that we have completed negotiations with Rabbi Finkelstein and we are looking forward to many successful years ahead. Yasher Koach to the negotiation committee chaired by Howard Gases. Many thanks to the members of the committee, Steve Harkavy, Robert Lipson, Andrea Kostick, and Howard Sorkin, for your months of hard work.

We are currently in the process of hiring a new Educational Director who will be starting in July. More details will become available once everything is finalized.

As you can see there is much going on at our shul on a regular basis. I have just mentioned the positive aspects. Unfortunately there are some issues that I need to bring to your attention. As a result of the School wing being unoccupied for one year, the loss of this year's day camp, and the large debt that we have been experiencing here for many years, we are now facing a serious financial crisis.

In my Kol Nidre appeal I mentioned that acts of charity avert the stern decree, and that we can not take the existence of EBJC for granted. Now is the time to step up. We are now asking everyone to honor their financial obligations to EBJC

Eric and I thank you in advance for your kind attention to this matter.

Eric Rabinowitz and Elissa Smith -Co Presidents

Preschool Press

Time sure does fly when you are having fun. Here it is June already, which means our Pre-Kindergarteners are ready to graduate and move on. We all have mixed emotions to see our little preschoolers graduate and leave our building, but are so proud of all they accomplished this year.

We are sad that one of our beloved teachers, Sydney Kramer has announced her retirement this year. Sydney has worked as a Nursery School for the past 24 years. Many of our congregant's children have passed through her class and will always remember her kindness dedication, and creativity. We're going to truly miss her presence. It's been wonderful and a pleasure to work with Mrs. Kramer, and we wish her nothing but the best.

It's not too late to register for our 2014-15 Nursery School year. If you are interested please contact Lynda Perel at LPerel@ebjc.org or call the office 732-257-7070.

Have a wonderful
you in September!

MESSAGE FROM THE INTERIM PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE

What an end to an event filled year!

In commemoration of Yom HaShoah, on April 28 our USY and Hebrew High School students as well as members of our community had the privilege of listening to EBJC congregant Sylvia Stone speak about her experiences during the time of the Holocaust. Her moving discussion touched many of us and the students had the opportunity to connect to someone who truly lived through this horrific time. In addition, we were pleased to have EBJC congregant Mirah Becker join us who shared her touching story of her life as the child of a Holocaust survivor. We thank Sylvia Stone and Mirah Becker for their candor and honesty and for helping to make this evening one that we can all reflect upon.

In celebration of Yom Ha'Atzmaut, on April 29 our Kadima and Hebrew High School students had the opportunity to listen to EBJC congregant Nir Granot speak of his experiences in the Israeli military. He shared his military journey with the students and had them engaged in a question/answer session. The students were very interested in the functions of the military and the part that Mr. Granot played. Thank you to Mr. Granot for enlightening our students and teaching them about military life in Israel.

Our Chaverim group also had an opportunity to celebrate Yom Ha'Atzmaut as they shared an evening together and played Israeli-based games, got a taste of Israeli food and wrote letters to Israeli soldiers which we are planning to send to the Golani Brigade.

Our Hebrew School ended this year with many exciting events some of which included:

On May 20, our Bogrim students performed a mock "wedding" of their classmates in the Main Sanctuary. Parents and students enjoyed this traditional happening and celebrated afterward with a "reception" including a Mazal Tov cake! This event marked the conclusion of the many life cycle milestones that the students learned about throughout the year.

On May 29, Our Vav class had the opportunity to visit the East Brunswick Shoprite and use their excellent Kashrut skills to shop for items that were then donated to the local Kosher Food Pantry. This activity was a culmination of their Kashruth unit as well as their discussions about the importance of Tzedakah.

Mazal Tov to our graduating students! Please join us on Tuesday evening, June 3 (Shavuot service) as watch our students move on!

Today Rabah to all our teaching staff - Laura Silverman Weiss, Elana Rockman, Michal Shmuel, Stacy Gross, Pauline Mykoff, Judy Hecht, Shoshi Rivlin, Marsha Gottlieb, Osnat Cudkevich and Miriam Dobin for making this past school year so special. Also to our classroom assistants for their help and support throughout the year. And special thanks to our USY, Kadima and Chaverim leaders and their committee of helpers who provided wonderful programs for our children!

As the summer approaches, I wish to thank the entire EBJC community for welcoming me as the Interim Religious School and Youth Director during these past few months. It has been a wonderful experience and I look forward to seeing our shul grow and progress! Wishing you all a safe, happy and fun-filled summer.

Bar/Bat Mitzvah

Jared Blatteis
June 7, 2014

On June 7, 2014 I become a Bar Mitzvah. As part of my Bar Mitzvah preparation I wanted to give back to our community. Since I am a huge baseball fan, I wanted to incorporate my love of baseball into a worthwhile cause. For my Mitzvah project, I participated in the East Brunswick buddy ball baseball program. This project has been a very humbling experience for me. I have been able to work with children of different ages, playing my favorite sport of baseball. The children that participate in the program, all have varying degrees of special needs. I am there to help them out and have fun with them. I hope to continue being a participant of this program for many years to come.

BAR MITZVAH PROJECT

Matan Omansky will become a Bar Mitzvah on October 18, 2014. Matan is donating English books to schools in Israel through The Jade Bar Shalom Books for Israel Project. This is an international grassroots effort to bring gently used good quality English books to school libraries in Israel. The "Books for Israel" project connects donors directly to schools, teachers and the students so that both the donor and recipient communities can develop close, friendly relations. Matan expects to donate over 250 of his own books and appreciates any book donations from the community so that he can donate many more. The books can be dropped in the bin at EBJC or Matan will pick them up from you directly. There is a shipping cost to send the books to Israel so Matan is working also to raise money and appreciates any donations to help defray the costs. Any donation is tax-deductible. If you would like to make a tax-deductible contribution please go to <http://tsal.org/donatecontact.html>. Fill out the form and in the field, "Recommended Charity", enter "Books for Israel" and include In Honor Of: Matan Omansky. Thank you for your support for this great mitzvah!

SISTERHOOD

Join Today's Sisterhood!!!

SISTERHOOD- IT'S WHAT YOU PUT INTO IT!
EVERY WOMAN IN OUR SYNAGOGUE SHOULD BE

On Wednesday, May 28th, Yom Yerushalyim, Sisterhood and the East Brunswick Chapter of Hadassah had a joint general session. We had a featured guest speaker, Ruth Gottlieb who told her story about how she, at the age of 4 and her mom narrowly escaped Nazi Germany. Her dad got out months before and went to America to earn money for her and her mom's passage to the States. Ms. Gottlieb recounted her adventures of coming to America, living in a foster home until her parents could afford to take care of her. It was a fascinating story and everyone who attended left knowing that much more of those horrific times.

I am thrilled to share with you that the EBJC Sisterhood won the Emerald Level of the Jewels of the Crown Award bestowed upon us by the Garden State Region of Women's League. It will be presented to us on Sunday morning, July 20th at the Bi- Annual Convention at the Marriot in Whippany, NJ. Women from ALL over the country will be at this convention and I hope that women from our shul will be attending. Go onto the Women's League Website for more info.

I believe our Sisterhood has developed into a warm and nurturing organization. We've had and will continue to have wonderful functions and programming that will be of interest to everyone. I do hope that more women will get involved. A strong Sisterhood is the backbone of a strong Shul.

The EBJC eBay service works like a charm. We sent Anne a few pictures of a "Jackie Doll" and accessories that we wanted to sell and within about a week a lady in Australia won the auction and the deal was sealed. What a great way for EBJC (and us) to make a few bucks, clean-up the good room, Anne did a great job...Joe
